Students are diving into the skill of questioning by adding to the class "Wonder Wall". They are growing their capacities to think deeper and to make connections.

Caring and connecting to the land: Students worked together to replant a birch tree in the dig pit. They also noticed worms burrowing near where the tree was planted. "The worms are helping tree roots get water and healthy stuff." - A.Y.

Band Showcase: Div 1 - 3 students shared what they have been learning in band. It's the first time all 3 classes played together!

Walking Wednesday: a weekly nature walk that sparks curiosity and connections.
