Planting has begun! Students worked together to clean out the garden beds before planting vegetables and flowers. How do plants support one another in their growth?

Music In Our Schools: Gateway Performance - Div 1 - 3 band students performed alongside students from SLSS and neighbouring schools. Our communities are connected through music! Thank you to all students for your hard work and to Ms. Elliott for leading them!

Students have been learning about Cedar and its significance to local communities. We had the gift of learning cedar weaving from Musqueam knowledge keeper Rita Kompst, who shared stories of Cedar and taught us to weave a Cedar coaster.
